

Return, Refund and Cancellation Policy

Once a subscription order is received, all orders are final and in most cases cancellations will not be accepted. There is good reason for this policy.

All orders are pre-paid to the CHICAGOAN Magazine and processed promptly to ensure our subscribers receive their first issue as fast as possible. The CHICAGOAN Magazine differentiates itself from other print and online magazines because we never offer any free trials, introductory editions or other scams. We are able to provide the finest coverage and sell our products at the lowest rates because we have pledged to our readers & vendors that we will only process legitimate, pre-paid orders from consumers that are confident they want to enjoy all the CHICAGOAN Magazine has to offer when they send in their order form. This saves everyone involved time and money and our current cancelation rate is less than 1%.
